GOAT CHAMPIONS
(St. Louis)—Misses Faye Johnston and Adele Armstrong won the bread making championship against 10 contestants in the competition at Mary Institute.

We hail the tennis champions,
And each his hat will doff
To dandies who display their skill,
And misdeeds, too, at golf;
But here's "churrah," "victory," and all
The cheers that can be said
For these attractive maidens who
Are best at baking bread.

The "woman leader at the bar"
Is something good to see,
And she who plays the violin
May fill our hearts with glee.
Each grave profession and each sport
Has women at its head—
But here's a "good for you!" to those
Who won by making bread.

The world is full of heroines,
A large and lengthy list
May be compiled of those who win
From looting down to whist;
But here's to those who realize
That mankind must be fed—
The lovely ladies who have won
The prize for baking bread.

O, yes, the hands have played for mahls
Who tell us "why" and "how";
Each golfing, riding, ping-pong dame
Has laurels on her brow;
But these two maidens! How easy 'tis
To know that soon they'll wed.
They must be beautiful and wise—
They won at making bread.

—Josh Wink.

EXCITED THE RESIDENTS.

Lee Street Neighborhood Worked Up By a Hobo Last Night.

The denizens of Lee street were in an excited state of mind last night about 9 o'clock over the peculiar antics of a man who gives his name as James Minor and his home as Bradford, Pa. He was wandering about the residence of Mr. Myer Gallantry of the Surprise Store, and when interrogated as to his presence at such an hour gave insolent answer and behaved in such a manner as to frighten the women folks in the house.

The neighborhood was aroused and a chase given the mysterious stranger.

He was finally cornered on Plum street in a blind alley by Policeman Sontenoy who escorted him to Jail, where he now awaits trial at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The prisoner informs The Ledger Man that he was drunk and really did not know where he was, having only struck the town a few hours before, having worked part of the day at Augusta.

In his flight he lost his hat, which was later found in the rear of Mr. Jack Newell's residence. That part of the city was as dark as erubus and one having evil intent found it propitious to their calling.

Concerning

Substantial High-Top Shoes and Durable Winter Boots

Fotterall, Baker & Brown have gained the reputation of making the best solid leather heavy goods in the world. The foremost dealers everywhere recognize the superiority of this firm's product, and though their lines command a little higher price than other manufacturers, the extra durability of this brand gives the retailer who handles them a prestige that competition cannot overcome.

We Have Them

As well as cheaper lines; in fact, there is nothing that you could wish in first-class footwear that we are unable to supply, and our prices will be found just as cheap as the same grade of goods can be bought for anywhere.

MURRAY & THOMAS.

Exalted Ruler W. B. Pecor of Maysville Lodge has received a dispatch from the Lodge of Elks at Pueblo, Colorado, directing him to procure a floral tribute for the late Mrs. John Cablish, and draw on that Lodge for the bill. A Perfect Painless Pill

Is the one that will cleanse the system, set the liver to action, remove the bile, clear the complexion, cure headache and leave a good taste in the mouth. The famous Little Pills for doing such work pleasantly and effectively are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Boh Moore of Lafayette, Ind., says: "All other pills I have used gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers are simply perfect." Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

Muslin Underwear

THE POINT, IS THE WAY IT'S MADE.

The prices in the list below speak for themselves. The important matter for emphasis is the way these little priced garments are made. Careful seams, generous shapely cuttings, high class trimmings put on to stay, materials and finish that will look equally well after many launderings as they do now—that is the moral of this story of pretty underwear at The New Store movement prices. Some general statements and two items to illustrate the extremes:

NIGHTGOWNS 75c to $2.75.

75c Cambric, round or square neck, yoke of tucks and Hamburg. $2.75 Nainsook, pointed yoke of Swiss embroidery and Val lace. Neck lace and ribbon trimmed, sleeves with lawn ruffle trimmed in Val lace and insertion. All edges finished with briar stitching.

SKIRTS 50c to $7½.

KIRK VS. ROBERSON.

Appellate Court's Action Wednesday in a Mason County Suit.

Wednesday the Court of Appeals, Judge Hobson writing, affirmed the judgment of the Mason County Court in a case of James N. Kirk and others against James R. Roberson, Sheriff. The question raised was whether a special legislative act of 1890 authorizing the levy of a school tax had been repealed, and whether the Fiscal Court of Mason County was authorized to levy the tax.

The Circuit Court ruled the act to be not inconsistent with any provision of the Constitution, and in effect, which, the Appellate Court upholds.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and building the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. THE BEE HIVE! HOW OLD IS ANN

"Mary is 24 years old. Mary is twice as old as Ann was when Mary was as old as Ann is now. How old is Ann?" Now, Mr. Professor or Miss Schoolteacher or anybody in Maysville, can you tell us how old is Ann? Speaking of ages, reminds us of the work we have been doing in the last four months in guessing the ages of all the little babies in Maysville and surrounding counties. And guessing ages was not all the work. On Wednesday, October 14th, we open a new department called Infants' Department!

We had hoped to have our new building ready for this department, but until same is ready we trust the old building will serve you as best it can. The ONLY STORE in Northern Kentucky that can furnish a complete outfit from infant to mother. Not three years old. What will we do for you on our silver anniversary? REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Republicans of Mason county will meet at the Courthouse in this city Saturday, October 17th, 1903, at 1:30 o'clock p. m., to nominate candidates for Representative and Circuit Clerk, to be voted for at the coming November election.

W. D. COCHRAN, Chairman.

A COMMISSION of prominent St. Louis people is in Louisville to learn how that city disposes of its garbage. This, however, does not include her Democratic repeaters.

GOV. BRADLEY'S CALL TO DUTY.

Chairman John C. Wood of the Republican Speakers' Bureau has received the following letter from former Governor Bradley:

Louisville, Ky., October 24, 1903.
Hon. John C. Wood, Chairman Speakers' Bureau—Sir: Had my health justified I would have spoken for the Republican party before this, and shall certainly speak as soon as able. The best interest of the state requires the election of the Republican ticket, and I trust that no man will be found who is not willing to do his duty.

I hope that no effort will be spared to register the vote in the cities and towns of the Commonwealth, as this is the foundation of success, and in the absence of a full and proper registration we cannot hope to win. Your friend,
W. O. BRADLEY.

Just as might have been expected! The LEDGER a few days ago referred to an article printed in its clever contemporary The Bulletin in which it was stated that Mr. CHARLES L. GRAY of Augusta had expressed the opinion that BECKHAM was a sure winner and that BELKNAP was several leagues beyond Nowhere in the Governor's race.

The publication has prompted the following letter from Mr. GRAY, which is sufficiently plain to be read by those who run—

AUGUSTA, KY., October 14th, 1903.

Colonel Thomas A. Davis, Maysville, Ky.—My Dear Sir: A Brooksville friend sent me a copy of THE LEDGER of the 13th with marked article referring to an alleged interview in Cincinnati Enquirer of recent date. No such an interview ever occurred. My Republicanism has never been questioned, and I have no untidy tongue. I promptly wired Mr. BELKNAP repudiating the article, and shall expect my friends to deny it for me. I am sorry Democratic newspapers have taken the matter up, as it can make no votes for BECKHAM and lose none for Mr. BELKNAP.

I assure you, Colonel Davis, that I appreciate too highly the compliment paid me this summer, and none more than yourself, in the effort made for me at Paris. Have arranged to have article repudiated by Enquirer, or at least their correspondent promised to have it done. Until my denial reaches the public this is all that I can do. Your friend,
CHARLES L. GRAY.

In South Carolina TILMAN was "honorably" acquitted of murdering Editor GONZALES in cold blood; in Kentucky, CALEB POWERS is sentenced to hang—for being forty miles away when GOEBEL was shot!

At the Republican Convention at the Courthouse tomorrow afternoon the name of Mr. CHARLES C. DEGMAN of Springdale will be submitted as a candidate to represent Mason county in the Legislature. Mr. DEGMAN is one of the best known Republicans in this section, popular alike in both parties, and his nomination would add strength to the ticket. He is a Grand Army man, and if honored as the party candidate THE LEDGER vouches for Mr. DEGMAN's honorable and active canvass for the office.

A correspondent of The Louisville Herald "humps up his back up," charging that paper with an attempt to place such men as ex-Governor Bradley and ex-Governor Brown on a level with its high-minded, high-toned gentleman as Governor Beckham, a man that has stood by and for the common people; and The Herald promptly disclaims any such intention, citing a single instance in which there is a distance between their levels of $71,100.93, established by Governor Brown himself. He was handling the money of the taxpayers and collected $800,041.03 of war claims from the National Government at a total cost of 2 cents in postage. This was in 1892, when Governor Brown was a plain Democratic Governor, without guile and without itch to divert the money of the people from their possession. In those old-fashioned days that was considered right and Democratic. But in 1903 that high-minded and high-toned gentleman, Governor Beckham, handling the same sort of claim, collected $1,323,000.35, and it was callooned to the extent of $71,100.93. There is not only high-mindedness and high-tonedness for you, but also high-pricedness. Mr. Beckham is away up high above Governor Brown's level—that is, if Mr. Beckham can be said to be on the level. The account can be presented in the form:

Cost to the state of collection of $800,041.03 by Gov. Brown.....$00,000.02
Cost to state of collection of $1,323,000.35 by Gov. Beckham.....71,100.93

Difference in cost.....$ 71,100.93

It is hardly probable that Governor Brown could reach Governor Beckham's level in a life-time, even if he tried. It is still more improbable that he would try. Calhouning was not considered Democratic in his day.

Political Pickings

THE CAUSE OF IT ALL.

Cynthiana Log Cabin.

Amidst all the spellbinding and assassination talk our Democratic friends must all admit one solemn truth, unpleasant as it may seem. If the Democratic party had not engaged in theft of offices to which others were fairly elected, William Goebel would be alive today, and Kentucky would have been spared much disgraceful history.

THE POWERS CASE IN HANCOCK.

Haverhill Plaindealer.

Many of the sincere Democrats of Hancock county who have carefully read the great speech of Caleb Powers do not believe that he is guilty of the crime for which he must give up his life. And they will have none of his blood upon their hands by indorsing an infamous administration, which finds it necessary to steal and murder in order to maintain itself in power.

"That's My Idea"

Do Good—It Pays.

A Chicago man has observed that "Good deeds are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You cannot possibly lose by it." Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in this community who might truthfully say: "My good friend, cheer up. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. I know it, for it has helped me out many a time." Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Druggist J. C. Pecor Explains How Vinol Creates a Desire for Food.

"Vinol is the greatest aid to digestion that we have ever known," said Mr. Pecor.

"It contains all of the active, medicinal-curative elements that are found in cod liver oil, without any oil or grease.

"These medicinal elements act so favorably upon the stomach that this organ obtains for itself the elements necessary for creating new flesh, muscle tissue, and for making rich, red blood.

"When the stomach acts easily and naturally, a desire is created for good, simple food, and a good appetite is the sure result.

"With cod liver oil in its old form, the medicinal elements which it contained were unable to do their best work because of the obnoxious oil that enveloped them.

"Now in Vinol we have those same medicinal elements separated from the vile-tasting oil, and we have a tonic and re-builder that is simply marvellous in its action.

"We want every one in Mayville to know more about our Vinol, how it cures and what it cures. Certainly Vinol is the greatest tonic and re-builder we have ever sold.

"Lack of appetite is not itself a disease, but a symptom of weakness showing itself in the nerves of the stomach, which control the desire for food. We guarantee Vinol will cure this weakness or give back your money." J. C. Pecor, Druggist.

The Colonel retired several years ago on a competence and now lives at Aberdeen, O.

It develops that Chairman T. E. Burton of the Rivers and Harbors Committee, who spent months abroad studying waterways and incidentally a method of canalizing the Ohio from Pittsburgh to Cairo, returns without additional information beneficial to the stream with its perennial low-water stages. Reports say there is nothing in the four great rivers of Europe that will help to solve the low-water problem in the Ohio. The supply of water in the Rhine, Danube and Elbe is nearly equal the year round, their having sources in the mountains where the melting of the snow is steady. The Volga is fed from a great artificial lake. No such lake is possible at headwaters of the Ohio river.

MILLIONAIRE'S POOR STOMACH.

The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paralyzed in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attending the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the laborers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over thirty-five years. August Flower cures the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At Henry W. Ray's, next door to Postoffice.

The trouble between him and Gonzales had existed for years and was intensified during Tillman's candidacy for Governor. Mrs. Patterson Made Miserable By Neuralgia.

1615 Bedford Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., August 27, 1903.

Mrs. NORA PATTERSON says: "For many years the pains of neuralgia kept me from sleeping. I became nervous and irritable and felt generally miserable. I consulted my family doctor and he prescribed for me, but still I could not sleep. A friend advised me to take Paine's Celery Compound. I hesitated a long time, for I never had any faith in advertised medicines. Finally I tried a bottle and I felt such an improvement that I continued to take it until I had taken three bottles. It completely restored my health, and I can sleep now as well as any one. My nervousness has disappeared and my appetite is fine."

As we failed to get the Rural Free Delivery, we suggest another change which will do equally as well. Send carrier Hughes from Ribolt to Spingado, via Poplar Flat and Cottageville; send carrier Cole from Fears to Concord, via McKenzie and Covedale. This will extend the mail lines over more turnpike without increasing the distance traveled by each carrier at present, will save back tracking and will accommodate more people. As Mr. Kehoe has done much toward improving the mail service of his own county he will certainly aid us in getting this change if any one will work it up.

A Well Dressed Man!

Makes you stop and consider the very important point, "Do I look like him, or am I shabby?" I wonder what it cost him to look like that? NOW LISTEN: If he lacks good judgment it costs him a lot of money. If he places himself in our hands it doesn't. We endeavor to place every man that deals with us under obligations to us—and then he starts out to cancel that obligation by bringing in a friend, who becomes a customer, and who in turn starts out to bring his friends—and so on.

How do we place a customer under obligations to us? We give him all that his money calls for and more than he expects, consider his whims and feelings and pocket-book. He's pleased, and he can't help telling his friends. Thus the good work goes on.
